Owen Mumford helps patients and healthcare professionals deliver effective treatments for conditions such as diabetes, multiple sclerosis and many other therapy areas. Our solutions are used as part of self-management plans and in hospitals, doctors' surgeries, pharmacies, care homes and clinics around the world.

Through our work and our partnerships we seek to improve quality of life, encourage adherence to treatment and reduce healthcare costs. Making a world of difference, to a world of people.

Advanced design to manufacturing for global solutions

With a 67-year history of medical device firsts, Owen Mumford offers innovations for sampling and drug delivery from a broad base of proven self-injection and blood sampling platform devices and intellectual property.

Our extensive research, design and manufacturing capabilities produce leading-class medical devices that are used by a worldwide audience – with approximately 90% of our products exported to more than 60 countries. We are committed to bringing life-saving and life-changing devices to new markets around the globe.

Our headquarters are based near Oxford, England, Owen Mumford has offices in the UK, USA, France, Germany and Malaysia and specialist distributors across five continents. Selected as one of The World Economic Forum's Global Growth Companies, we are a trusted partner to many of the world's biggest pharmaceutical companies and work closely with international partners to support our customers at a local level and to provide consistent and dedicated service.

Modern Day Slavery Act

The following Modern Slavery Statement relates to the year ending 30th September 2018

We recognise the provisions of the Modern Day Slavery Act 2015 and continue to ensure transparency within our organisation and with our suppliers to help meet our legal obligations.

We are committed to ensuring our work environment is free from human trafficking and forced labour and strongly believe that we have a responsibility for promoting ethical and lawful employment practises throughout our supply chain. We will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking.

Commitment

As part of our commitment to identify and mitigate risk Owen Mumford and its supply chain are required to adhere to the following requirements:

- Will not use forced or compulsory labour i.e. any work or service that a worker performs involuntarily, under threat of penalty;
- Will ensure that the overall terms of employment are voluntary;
- Will comply with the minimum age requirements required by current legislation;
- Will ensure that all Owen Mumford associates are paid with wages and benefits that meet or exceed the legally required minimum and will comply with working time directive legislation;
- Will not engage in any practise of slavery, servitude, forced labour and/or human trafficking outside the UK which would constitute an offence if that conduct took place within the UK; and
- Will encourage any sub-contractors or suppliers from whom they source goods and/or services for incorporation in those supplied to Owen Mumford to adhere to these requirements.

In contractual agreements, we will require all suppliers to ensure they comply with applicable laws and regulations including those in relation to employment conditions, human trafficking or forced labour.

Accountability

Any associate, contractor or supplier involved in inappropriate conduct or in violation of legislation or regulations, may be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination of employment or cancellation of their contract for goods and/or services.
